

OBEDIENCE CLASSES

for dogs and puppies
Next session starts on Monday,
September 13, 2010
for five weeks

BEGINNING OBEDIENCE- DOGS AND PUPPIES OVER 4 MOS.:

This class is for both puppies and adult dogs. It is for dogs whose manners need improving- they jump on people, pull on the leash, etc. NOT for dogs with aggression problems. This class teaches basic control and answers questions about day-to-day management of your dog. We will work on sit, stay, down, come and heel. Please bring a nylon or leather leash to the first class, six feet in length is preferred- no chain or retractable leashes. We will be teaching this class using choke collars, not halter-type control devices, and flat collars only with the permission of the instructor, to assure that all dogs can be safely controlled. Instructor: Lindsay Strutt This class meets for 5 weeks and the fee is $60. Class meets Monday nights, 7-8 p.m.

About our instructor:

Lindsay Strutt has been teaching obedience for more than 30 years. She has titled many purebred dogs of several breeds in AKC competition, all the way through the highest level, Utility. She is now working in rally obedience. Lindsay is also a professional handler of show dogs and an all-breed dog groomer.

About Arboroads Farm:

Our classes are held in a large, professional training facility where we also host AKC and UKC events. We keep our class size small to better serve you.

ARBORROADS FARM is located at 3660 S. Maple Rd. in Ann Arbor, I-94 to exit 175 (Saline-AA Rd.). South about 3/4 mi. to light at S. Maple. Turn left and go to the second drive on the right. Drive back to large barn.
